ABOUT ME

I am a passionate and detail-oriented Android developer with a strong foundation in mobile application development. With expertise in Java/Kotlin, Android SDK, XML layouts, and Firebase, I focus on building smooth, responsive, and user-friendly Android applications. My experience includes developing projects like Sportletix, a sports-related application, and a Tic Tac Toe game, emphasizing clean UI and efficient logic. Currently pursuing an MCA, I continuously enhance my skills to stay updated with modern Android development practices and tools. I am eager to apply my problem-solving abilities and technical knowledge to create innovative, high-performance Android applications.
